Sir:

In response to the last Office Letter, please amend the application as follows;

Cancel all claims remaining in the case.

Rewrite claim 7 (indicated as being allowable) as new claim 9.

9. A trajectory training device for demonstrating the correct arc for a player's ball when shooting a basket, comprising;

a hoop of a size <sup>7</sup> to allow a player to shoot a ball through it without interference; means to support said hoop at a height over a player's head; and, a base means for supporting said support means in a vertical position, and where said base means supports said
